JUBILARIANS

FATHER HILLER

FATHER ESSER

Two Local Professors Celebrate Silver Jubilee of Ordination

Two members of St. Joseph's faculty celebrated the Silver Jubilee of their ordination last Wednesday. They are the Rev. Joseph Hiller, professor of German, and the Rev. Rufus Esser, professor of English and chairman of the Division of Humanities.

At ten-thirty, in the morning, a Solemn High Mass of Thanksgiving was sung in the College Chapel, with Father Hiller as celebrant, Father Rufus, deacon, and Father Gilbert Esser, subdeacon. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Joseph Kinkel. A dinner, honoring the two priests, was served in the college dining room, with relatives and friends among the guests. The Rev. Edwin Kaiser was the toast-master.

Fathers Hiller and Esser were ordained to the priesthood on May 21, 1925 in St. Charles Seminary Chapel, Carthagena, Ohio, by His Eminence Samuel Cardinal Stritch, Archbishop of Chicago, at that time Bishop of Toledo.

For a brief period after ordination Father Hiller did parochial work in Detroit, and then taught at St. Mary's Preparatory Seminary, Burkettsville, Ohio, and at Brunnerdale Seminary, Canton, Ohio. After obtaining his Ph.D. degree at Catholic University of America in 1939, he came to Collegeville to teach German. In addition to his work in the classroom, Father Hiller was, for several years, director of the students of Xavier Hall. Next month, Father Hiller will sail for Europe on a Holy Year Pilgrimage to Rome and for a visit with relatives and friends in Germany.

Father Esser was assigned to St. Joseph's immediately after his ordination and has taught here continuously since then, except for a year spent at Catholic University, Washington, where he did graduate work in English and Education and earned his Master's degree. For several years Father Esser served as dean of men, and later as principal of the Academy. In 1937 he was named president of St. Joseph's, but ill health forced his resignation from that position within a year.

CONTACT! congratulates the jubilarians and extends sincere good wishes for the years to come!

Sanguinists Lose Young Missioner; Victim of Polio

The Society of the Precious Blood lost one of its younger members by death on April 5, when the Rev. Arthur G. Grevenkamp, '40, succumbed to a three-day attack of polio at Santiago, Chile. The funeral Mass was celebrated on April 12 in Santo Domingo church, where Father Grevenkamp was assistant pastor, and interment was made in the parish cemetery.

Father Grevenkamp was born at Fort Recovery, Ohio, and entered the Society of the Precious Blood in 1934. He studied at St. Joseph's from September, 1938 to June, 1940, and completed his preparation for the priesthood at St. Charles Seminary, Carthagena, Ohio, where he was ordained on Feb. 2, 1946. For three years he was engaged in parochial work at St. Anthony's parish, Linton, N. Dak., and then volunteered for work on the missions in Chile.

After a summer course in Spanish at Collegeville, last summer, he sailed for South America on July 29. Upon his arrival in South America, Father Grevenkamp was assigned as assistant at San Juan's parish, Pitruquen, and only this spring was transferred to Santo Domingo parish, Santiago.

Father Grevenkamp became sick suddenly on Palm Sunday evening and was removed to San Salvador hospital the following day and placed in one of Chile's two iron lungs. Two days later he died, with the Very Rev. John Wilson, his superior, at his bedside.

To Father Grevenkamp's bereaved parents, five brothers and two sisters CONTACT! extends heartfelt sympathy.

Prom Committee Plans Ship Setting, Square Rigged Bids

With the May 20 date of the prom approaching fast, Mike Lehner and the Prom committee are shaping plans to make the 1950 formal a memorable one.

A Maritime Theme

Basing their decorations on a novel maritime theme, the committee plans to transform the field house into a luxury liner. When couples arrive at the dance, they will be "logged in" by the "officer of the deck" and enter a gaily decorated ship. An arrangement of blue and white streamers will fall to the deck from a large ceiling. A realistic gangway will connect the dance floor with the "wharf" where refreshments will be served.

Bids; No Tickets

The ticket committee recently announced that there will be no advance sale of tickets, as in the past. Prom-goers need only purchase a bid, and then show it at the door as they enter.

The bids in a blue and white color scheme are to be miniature representations of old-time sailing vessels. The "bow" of each little ship will open to reveal the evening's program and dancing schedule. The sails will bear the legends, SJC and CL 50.

Many alumni have already expressed their intention of attending the prom. The Junior class extends a cordial invitation to all and promises an unforgettable time.

Revelers' Concert Concludes Year's Memorial Theatre Series

The Revelers, world-famous male quartet, presented a well-selected and balanced concert in the College Theatre, last Tuesday evening, April 18. The program concluded the current Speckbaugh Memorial Theatre Series which this year brought to Collegeville the piano duo, the Teltschiks; the dePaur Singers, and Miss Anna Kaskas, Metropolitan contralto.

Opening the program with several Shakespearean songs and passing to numbers in a lighter vein, the singers' renditions became progressively better and better as the audience called again and again for encores.

Harold Brown and Delbert Anderson, tenors, Rand Smith, baritone, and Wilfred Glenn, basso, individually have excellent voices, and they blended vocal and piano into perfect entertainment.

The audience definitely seemed to favor the lighter, more popular offerings, like "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," "Old Man River," and "Some Enchanted Evening," and the Revelers' novelty arrangements of "Dry Bones," "Nola," and "When Yuba Plays the Rumba on the Tuba," although Greig's "A Dream," and Lecuona's "Siboney" were applauded loudly.

Mr. Paul Vellucci, pianist-arranger, accompanied the quartet, and during the intermission displayed rare artistry in his playing of Mendelssohn's "Rondo Capriccioso," and Debussy's "Clair de Lune."

Committee Submits Slate of Candidates

The Constitution of St. Joseph's College Alumni Association in Article VI, Section 4 provides for the nomination of candidates for office by a Nominating Committee, consisting of three members of the Board of Directors, chosen by the Board of Directors. It further states that the election of the President, two Vice Presidents, and the Directors of the Association shall be by postal ballot of eligible alumni, eligibility to be dependent on a financial contribution to the Association during the current year.

Faculty Announces Scholarship Winners

Results of the 1950 Regional Scholarships Examinations, held on the campus on April 15, have just been announced by the Rev. Walter T. Pax, dean. Thirty-nine boys, representing 21 high schools in Indiana and surrounding states, competed for the awards.

Buel T. Adams, of Mansfield, Ohio, made the highest score among all contestants and won the inter-regional scholarship valued at $1400.00 for a four-year period, or $350.00 a year.

Two regional scholarships in each of four regions, the first valued at $1000.00 over a four-year period ($250.00 a year), and the second at $400.00 over a like period, were also awarded. The winners follow:

Northern Indiana and Michigan:
1) Philip J. Kauchak, Whiting; 2) Eugene J. Mellady, East Chicago.

Illinois: 1) David O. Davis, Danville; 2) John O'Rourke, Danville.

Ohio: 1) George W. Mach, Ottawa; 2) Thomas J. Stein, Celina.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors at Collegeville on Jan. 22, by unanimous vote, Mr. Edward Purcell, Mr. Charles Fromer, and Mr. Lincoln Piotrowski were named members of the Nominating Committee. This committee has submitted the following slate of candidates:

For President—Clarence Sieben, '23

For 1st Vice President—Lincoln Piotrowski, '43

For 2nd Vice President—Bernard Sutton, '35

For Board of Directors:

John Metzner, '12

Thomas Neff, '24

Arthur Mossong, '25

Richard Scheiber, '41

Further Nominations

The Constitution provides for other nominations to be made by local chapters or by individual members. Such nominations, if received by the secretary not less than 30 days before the election, are valid nominations and are published along with and in the same manner as those of the Nominating Committee.

Two Directors Resign

Announcement is made at this time of the resignation of Mr. Edward Purcell and Mr. Herbert Kenney, Jr., from the Board of Directors, their resignation to become effective on June 1. The four candidates elected to membership on the Board of Directors will fill the vacancies created by the resignation of these two men and the retirement of Mr. William Kozelski and Mr. William Curosh whose term of office expires in June.

Program Plans

Plans for the annual Alumni Days are taking shape. Final arrangements for the three-day get-together will be made by a committee which will meet on May 22.

Are You Among Them?

With $20,000 set as the goal for this year, the success of the current drive for the LIVING ENDOWMENT FUND of the Alumni Foundation is very much in doubt, unless —! To date 123 alumni, or three and one-half per cent of the total membership, have responded to the appeal made almost two months ago by Mr. Thomas Medland, president of the Alumni Association. These alumni have contributed $1535 in cash and $268.50 in pledges for a total of $1803.50.

There has been one contribution of $250; two of $100; five of $50; six of $25; five of $20; four of $15; 22 of $10; two of $7; 46 of $5; two of $5; two of $4; seven of $3; two of $2.50; eight of $2; and 11 of $1.00. Two alumni have pledged $60: one, $40; two, $20; and several other, smaller amounts.

In his letter to the alumni, Mr. Medland stated that the LIVING ENDOWMENT FUND is "a program for all St. Joe College men, ex-students, high school and college graduates, and it is for St. Joe." Further he wrote: "Some men are able to contribute $1000 annually, some but a dollar. Better, however, to have 1000 men at $1.00 than one at $1000, though we should have both. This is one time that quantity is of prime importance, for participation by all of our 3500 alumni is a desirable goal."

With but 123 out of 3500 alumni responding, we are far from the desired goal, but it is hoped that the remaining 96 1/2 per cent who have not yet made their contribution will do so soon. The LIVING ENDOWMENT FUND is "designed to give hundreds of boys a chance to be trained in a wholesome atmosphere where religion will be a part of their training and a part of their lives and their leadership." St. Joseph's needs $20,000 annually to assist in its Student Aid program. Every alumnus is asked to be as generous as he can. Let's have a 100 per cent response to this 1950 appeal!

NFCCS AND MR. TRUMAN

C.P.P.S. Provincial Visits College

The Very Rev. S. W. Oberhauser, Provincial of the Society of the Precious Blood in the United States, arrived at St. Joseph's last Thursday and conducted the canonical visitation of the Community at Collegeville. Father Provincial interviewed each professed member of the Society at St. Joseph's, a procedure followed every three years in religious communities.

"Emperor Jones" In Production

Collegeville theatre fans will be offered the first tragedy seen on the local stage in more than three years next week, when the Columbian Players will present "Emperor Jones," the moving play of Eugene O'Neill, portraying the intellectual degeneration and final death of Brutus Jones, emperor of a small island in the Caribbean sea.

A cast of 14 men is used in the production. John O'Brien plays the leading role of Jones, and the drama group's director-moderator, Mr. Ralph Cappuccilli, takes the part of the scheming Smithers.

One of O'Neill's Best

"Emperor Jones" is one of Eugene O'Neill's best plays. It sets a very high emotional standard, and develops it well. Augmented by eerie forest scenery and the constantly increasing tempo of the ever-present drumbeats, it portrays a strong, cruel tyrant who, under the influence of the forest, his own imagination, and the drums, is reduced to impotency before the revolting natives, and is finally killed by them.

The play is dependent for its effectiveness on the mood it creates during its eight scenes. Set in a forest during most of the action, "Emperor Jones" requires adept handling of lighting effects and props.

College Grateful To Ohio Alumnus

The Biology Department of St. Joseph's is indebted to Donald F. Westhoven, '44, Napoleon, Ohio, for solving its problem of procuring distilled water. Recently Don donated an Aetna Type Water Still which produces two gallons of the "universal solvent" per hour. Coming just at the height of a distilled water scarcity, the gift is all the more appreciated. An old still had just been discarded and the department's carboys were empty. The new still was promptly installed by Brother Joseph, and eight hours later 15 gallons of the precious fluid were on hand.

The Fathers of the Biology Department are grateful to Mr. Westhoven for his gift which will solve this particular problem for years to come. Now they are looking for a good friend to furnish the department with a refrigerator, that the research department's bacterial media may be kept cool.

Alumni Quickies

On a recent tour of Catholic high schools in Ohio and Indiana, George M. Smith, '25, College Recruitment Director, had the pleasure of many appointments with students, arranged by alumni priests who are pastors or principals of these schools. Mr. Smith has visited nearly 50 high schools in nearby states, and hopes to continue visits in a five-state area during the summer months. He is eager to enlist the aid of alumni in his drive for students and says, "it would be fine if ten per cent of our 3500 alumni would send a student from their home parish or area to St. Joe's . . . One of CONTACTS' most faithful correspondents, the Rev. T. Francis Kramer, '01, calls our attention to our "Quickie" on baseball in the March number, and reminds us that four games were played by a "Varsity" nine in the spring of 1901. Our information was taken from a Monogram Club Record of Athletics which lists opponents, scores and dates. It would seem the historian could find complete records only from 1906. Upon further investigation we find that the April, 1895 "Collegian" mentions that James B. Fitzpatrick and Capt. Joseph Pfeifer were working on a schedule and "several good teams are scheduled to play here during the coming season." The College catalog of 1896-'97 seems to be the first to recognize a "representative" team, with James F. Connelly as manager, and Edward J. Mungovan as captain and short-stop . . . The "Indianapolis Star" of April 3 pictured a St. Joe grad, William E. Carlos, '42, in the role of census taker in the Capitol City. Bill is shown in a five-picture panorama from the time he introduced himself to an Indianapolis mother and child until he doffed his hat and departed for another home. It is evident that Bill didn't need any of his boxing skill from student days, judging from the engaging smile he carried through the interview . . .

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Constantine S. Pettigrew, '13, is one of six priests of the archdiocese of Cincinnati upon whom the honor of Domestic Prelate has very recently been conferred. Msgr. Pettigrew has been procurator at St. Gregory's Seminary for a number of years . . . Through the kindness and interest of the Rev. Wilfrid Popham, O.S.B., '31, of Marmion Military Academy, St. Joseph's Recruitment Director enjoyed a most pleasant afternoon and evening with the cadets at Marmion. Father Popham plans to bring a bus-load of seniors to Collegeville on a tour early in May . . . A two-page letter from Lawrence Moriarty, '40, a field representative for a dental equipment concern, and living at Natick, Mass., declares that tales about traveling men are "strictly stories." Then referring to a recent "Quickie" spotlighting "Pudge" Finan, '40. Larry admits that he was a teammate on that trip when they "went" saw and conquered." We may add that one got "hooked." . . . From Postal information furnished to CONTACT! following the mailing of the Alumni Foundation letter, we have learned of the death of the following: Donald Coleman, '20, Lakeland, Ky.; William J. Hyland, '43, Youngstown, Ohio; Robert E. McFadden, '40, Youngstown; John C. Manning, '44, Youngstown; the Very Rev. Msgr. Fintan G. Walker, '14, Terre Haute, Ind. . . A three-column space was required to register the smile of the Rev. Sylvester Schmelzer, '25, and the Miller City, Ohio hardwood five who won the Buckeye, Class B, title recently. Three of the players are from Fr. Schmelzer's New Cleveland parish. In doing the trick the boys had to beat Fr. Schmelzer's alma mater, Delphos St. John's, in the semi-finals. As we remember it, Fr. Syl was some shucks himself on the St. Joe floor in the 20s. . . Leading the first Indiana air pilgrimage of the year to Rome on March 8 were the Rev. James Quinn, '35, editor of the Lafayette in Indiana edition of "Our Sunday Visitor," and the Rev. Henry Ward, '37, pastor of St. Charles parish, Otterbein . . . Lt. Commander Joseph H. Seyfried, U.S.N., who entered the navy during World War I and who has been in dozens of countries during his many years in service, will retire soon and take up residence at 4110 Patero Way, Long Beach 4, Calif. Time has not dimmed Joe's memory of the campus; he still has a warm spot in his heart for alma mater and the many friends he made here . . . Statistics from the Office of Recruitment reveal that the Rev. Eugene Arnoldi, '24, has three of his St. Paul's High, Norwalk, Ohio, grads lined up for St. Joe next fall . . . The Rev. Max Herber, '26, writes that Kansas is a happy state in which to work. He is chaplain of St. Catherine's Hospital in Garden City (sounds like a wonderful spot) and has a mission of 230 souls, about 28 miles distant . . . Ed Bushman, ex-'17, after receiving his March CONTACT! wrote to inform us of the death of Bernard Brugger, '07, at Mercy Hospital, Springfield, Ohio. Ed added the pleasant note, "I still enjoy reading CONTACT! although I do not know too many of the boys

St. Joseph's in Indiana Circuit; Six Schools Join

St. Joseph's will participate in the newly-founded Indiana Collegiate Conference, beginning with the basketball season of 1950, it was disclosed at an April 16 meeting of representatives of six Indiana colleges, held at Butler.

Other schools represented at the meeting were Butler, Ball State, Evansville, Indiana State, and Valparaiso. St. Joseph's representatives were the Rev. Edward Roof, Athletic Director, and the Rev. Norman Heckman, Chairman of the Athletic Board.

Constitution Organized

A skeleton constitution was organized at the meeting, and the name "Indiana Collegiate Conference" was adopted. The six schools agreed to play each other under mutually approved conditions, attempting to schedule as many games as possible without interfering with already established conferences. This means that St. Joseph's will remain in the Midlands Conference, but schedule as many Indiana Collegiate Conference games as possible.

Since all member schools had already completed their 1950 football schedules, the representatives decided that conference games would not be scheduled until the 1951 season, but a number of basketball games were scheduled for the 1950-51 campaign.

Dr. Royalty, President

Dr. Paul Royalty of Ball State was elected first president of the conference. Prof. Dean Long of Evansville will serve as vice president, and Dr. W. L. Howard of Butler as secretary-treasurer.

The next meeting of representatives of the conference schools will be held on Nov. 19 of this year.

Hawkins, Pluth Score Netters Drop Two

St. Joseph's tennis squad met its first defeat of the spring by a score of 6-2, when Valparaiso's netters invaded the Collegeville courts, April 17.

An almost complete lack of practice for the Pumas, who had been crippled by cold weather and soggy courts, plus the return of only two veterans of last year's team, seemed to be the main causes for the defeat.

Both of the veterans, Joe Hawkins and Ed Pluth, were beaten in their singles matches, but a ray of hope glimmered for Father Roof when Don Tesmond shed his baseball spikes and took two out of three sets in the No. 5 match. Tesmond will play tennis whenever his baseball duties will allow. The Pumas' other point was notched by the Hawkins-Pluth doubles duo.

Scores

Singles: Koepke (V) beat Hawkins (SJ), 6-3, 6-0; Janto (V) beat Pluth (SJ) 7-5, 6-2; Brackman (V) beat Presnail (SJ) 6-3, 6-0; Dinkmeyer (V) beat Clark (SJ) 6-4, 5-7, 6-1; Tesmond (SJ) beat Muske (V) 8-6, 3-6, 6-3; Wollslager (V) beat Morrissey (SJ) 6-2, 6-1.

Doubles: Hawkins-Pluth (SJ) beat Koepke-Janto (V) 6-4, 7-5; Brackman-Dinkmeyer (V) beat Clark-Peters (SJ) 6-2, 6-2.

Wabash College dropped the St. Joe net squad for the second time by a score of 5-2. The match was held at Wabash. Joe Hawkins picked up one of the St. Joe points by winning his singles match, and the doubles of Hawkins and Pluth gave the Pumas their other point.

SMOKEY COMES HOME

Smokey Malone, Puma right fielder, crosses home plate as "Sody" Soderstrom waits for the throw in an intra-squad game. Don Ronan is the man playing the role of "Beans" Reardon.

Between Halves

BY BUD CLARK

IT'S BEGINNING TO LOOK as if the Indiana Collegiate Conference will take shape now that a skeleton constitution has been adopted and the schools involved have agreed to give it a three-year trial run. Many possibilities can be seen from such a setup as the newly founded conference. All member colleges, that is St. Joseph's, Indiana State, Butler, Evansville, Ball State, and Valparaiso are located in Indiana. Since most of these teams schedule each other in athletic endeavors, suitable schedules for conference play should be easily arranged.

AS FAR AS THE PUBLICITY ANGLE GOES, the circuit will probably have its own source of dissemination. This means that the conference colleges will get publicity other than that which ordinarily stems from their own publicity offices. And if we look further, we can readily see what such publicity can do. It can build more interest throughout the state in athletic contests which previously met with only mediocre interest. Under the conference setup the rivalry will be at a higher pitch, interest will grow, and the gate receipts may get a boost. As was stated at the meeting of officials held not long ago on the Butler campus, "such an agreement holds unknown possibilities."

BUT ALL THE DIFFICULTIES are not ironed out as yet. Butler is a little wary of setting its feet in a conference which has yet to be proven.

It has always been the policy of Butler to attempt to put athletics at the Indianapolis school on a high level. It wasn't too long ago that Butler was one of the recognized top schools in the country as far as basketball was concerned. The Bulldogs also have a top coach in Tony Hinkle. Should they take a step that would mean turning from their objectives? Butler is now in the Mid-America Conference. Should it attempt to compete with such teams as Cincinnati, and Ohio, or will the new Indiana Conference best suit its purpose? These are the questions Butlerites are asking. Students have recently protested the activities of the Butler athletic department. What will be the outcome, and how the Indiana Conference will fare remains answerable only in the future.

Eight Bouts on Boxing Card

Tony Zale and eight bouts will be the attraction tomorrow night in the field house at 8:00 p.m.

when Mike Dudak's boxers from Gary tangle on the Sanguinist Club's Benefit card. Main attractions of the evening will be Ray Zale, 1949 Chicago I.A.C. champ who will fight Jim Wenzel of Glen Park in the 160-pound class. Highly touted Paul Hernandez, the 1947 Open Golden Gloves Champ, will also exhibit the skill which won him 52 bouts out of 63. Hernandez will square off against John L. Sullivan, the 1950 State A.A.U. runnerup who has won 41 and lost 19 fights.

Six Other Matches

Other matches will find Jackie Dowell fighting Elmer Weston in the 120-pound division, Earl Nordhagen going against Joe Fitzgerald at 147 pounds, Brooks Culpepper taking on Tommy Evans in the 112-pound class, Teddy Skora battling Don Kustron in a 118-pound match, Bill Guelinas meeting John Rameriz in the 130-pound class, and Frank Koedyker mixing it up with Herb Hamilton in a 135-pound scrap.

Of course, the referee will be Gary's own Tony Zale, the Man of Steel. When Tony retired from

Meet Eastern, Indiana State Before Seeking Revenge for Loss

Golf Team Loses; Cavanagh Shoots 74

Wabash College edged the St. Joe golf squad, 10-8, in the Pumas' opening match of the season, April 18. Ed Cavanagh, freshman member of the Puma team, was medalist of the day with a 74.

Although beaten in match play, the St. Joseph team had low medal score of the contest, 319-321. Tom Connally shot a 77 to lead the Crawfordsville men in a thrilling match which wasn't decided until the eighteenth green.

The Rev. M. Dreiling, coach of the Puma team, was well pleased with the play of his linksters, who were on a course but the second time this year. A rematch with Wabash was scheduled for Collegeville yesterday.

Cavanagh (74) and Charles Gerst (82) won six points from Wabash's Joe Lovas (81) and Fred Lesh (83) team, which won three. The St. Joe team of Tom McNerney (84) and Bill Miller (79) gained two points from Connally (77) and Phil Robinson (80), but the latter pair took seven points to decide the match.

In a match recently added to the schedule the St. Joe golfers were to have met Taylor there this Monday. Other future matches are: Indiana State (there), May 1; Valparaiso (there), May 3; Valparaiso (here), May 8.

Dick Scharf and his baseball Pumas will be out next week to make things look a little brighter when they tangle with Eastern Illinois, Indiana State, and Valparaiso. St. Joe meets Eastern here Monday, Indiana State at Terre Haute on Tuesday, and then journeys again to Valpo on Saturday.

And speaking of Valparaiso, the Pumas will be out to avenge a 6-4 setback handed them by this squad last Saturday on the Crusaders' diamond. Four unearned runs in the fourth inning proved to be the margin of victory.

Error Costly

A costly error coupled with four hits and a walk saw an early St. Joe lead of 1-0 dwindle away. Cy Bohney was the victim and was charged with the loss. He was relieved by Charley Gorman in the seventh frame.

Jerry Leahy led the Puma seven-hit attack with two bingles. Wally Ziembra and Clarence rapped out doubles, while Smokey Malone, Keller Riede, and John Barrientos accounted for the remainder of the hits. Neunendorf, the Valpo first baseman, smashed a home run off Bohney in the sixth inning.

St. Joe Beats Wabash; Loses to Purdue, 10-6

St. Joseph's baseball nine, playing two road games in as many days, defeated Wabash, 4-2, on April 18, and dropped a 10-6 decision to Purdue, the next day.

The victory over Wabash was highlighted by the four-hit pitching of Cy Bohney and Charley Gorman.

St. Joe drew first blood in the fifth inning, scoring a run on two Wabash throwing errors. Three runs were tallied in the eighth on a walk, a single by Barrientos, an infield out, and a double steal.

Faulty fielding cost the Pumas a shutout, when Wabash scored two runs in the ninth on three errors and a single.

After leading 6-4 in the fifth inning, the Collegeville nine fell before the heavy bats of Purdue.

St. Joe scored two runs in the first, as Leahy was safe on an error, Barrientos sacrificed, and Wally Moore singled, scoring Leahy. Moore scored on Kuhn's single. The Pumas added another run in the third, when Moore walked, stole second and scored on Quinn's hit.

Collegeville scored its final three runs in the fifth. Moore walked; Quinn was safe on an error; Doyle reached first on a fielder's choice, and Moore scored. Quinn and Doyle crossed the plate on Kuhn's long double.

Three hits and an error gave the Boilermakers three runs in the second. They tallied again in the third on two singles and a stolen base, and tied up the game in the fifth on three safe blows and a Puma error.

The Boilermakers sewed up the contest in the sixth with four runs on four hits and two costly St. Joe fielding errors.

the ring, the record books showed 67 victories, all but four of them by knockouts. The former middleweight champ quit the ring after his defeat by the late Marcel Cerdan. Bishop Bernard J. Sheil of Chicago called Tony to take over the reigns of head boxing coach of the Chicago CYO.

Proceeds for Statue

The proceeds of tomorrow night's card will go toward the St. Joseph statue to be placed in front of the college.

The Sanguinist Club's fight promoter, John Naab, is expecting a sellout crowd for the event.

The college Grotto, West of the main campus, was built about 52 years ago, originally as a small shrine to the Blessed Virgin.

"St. Joseph's Collegian" Tells History of Campus Grotto

Approximately 52 years ago, the grove on the south border of the campus was merely a wooded area with no special attraction other than the study of plant and animal life. Today, it surrounds a lovely shrine dedicated in part to the Blessed Virgin, in part to Christ in His agony.

Back in 1898, the student publication on campus was the "St. Joseph's Collegian," a monthly journal. Following are some excerpts in the original form from the October issue of that year:

"Everybody recreating himself in the beautiful little grove in the rear of the College buildings will doubtless remember Mr. F. Ersing (later the Rev. Bernard Ersing, now deceased-Ed.) as the promoter, architect, and conductor of the little building now the chief attraction for the students. A grotto has been built on the choicest spot of the grove . . . Many a one, after a weary day's work, shall feel himself refreshed when at the foot of the Blessed Mother he lays bare his heart in prayer."

The grotto in 1898 consisted only of the stones on the east side, housing the statues of the Virgin and of Bernadette kneeling in prayer. It remained so for the next 33 years. In the "Collegian" of October, 1931, an article describes the rebuilt shrine just as it is today:

"Following the original of Lourdes, the new grotto is built around the old as a nucleus. The latter, with a newly paneled table of iridescent, chipped boulders, serves as a cave to the new structure. Provisions for votive lights, flowers, and a field Mass have been made in this cave . . .

The grotto reaches its highest point, twenty-two feet, in the niche for the statue of the Blessed Virgin. If the thirty-foot rock garden extension is taken into consideration, a length of one hundred and fifty-three feet is covered.

"The second unit, named 'Gethsemane,' is the hollowed center of the structure. Hoffman's 'Christ,' a special four-foot-high white Carrara marble statue is being imported from Italy."

The new grotto was designed around the old by a Columbus, Ohio, contractor, M. Parsinger, but was built mainly by students then enrolled. The stones and boulders were gathered from the countryside, and the more weather-beaten ones chosen especially to give an appearance of age to the trickling water-fall beneath the Virgin's feet.

Trees and shrubbery were landscaped to point up the shrine's beauty, and two small pools placed at its base. Water lilies and wild rice were planted in the pools, and later goldfish were added.

A list of the materials used shows the amount of work which must have gone into the remodeling. About 1200 tons of building supplies were necessary, including 30 tons of cement, 100 cubic yards of crushed rock, 108 cubic yards of sand, 170 cubic yards of soil, and the balance in stones and boulders.

Today, the grotto is as lovely a spot as ever, for wind and weather have inscribed the beauty and dignity of age on its rocky sides. With community students as caretakers, the shrine to Mary and her Son continues in popularity as a place for students and faculty alike to find quiet prayer and meditation.

Welcoming Committee Appointed by Council

Latest developments in the plans for Parents' Day to be held Sunday, May 7, is a "Welcome" committee, directed by the Student Council, under Chuck Barton. The committee will greet the visitors as they arrive on the campus, and pass out a program of the day's affairs to each parent.

The Parents' Day agenda includes the annual science exhibit of the Albertus Magnus Society, and the Columbian Players' presentation of Eugene O'Neill's drama, "Emperor Jones."

Tickets for the parents' meals may be obtained in the business office and in the cafeteria throughout the preceding week.

The May 7 celebration will be the second annual Parents' Day on the Collegeville campus. The day was instituted to foster relationship among the students' parents and between the parents and the faculty.

Minstrel Show Provides Laughs

The black-faced members of the St. Joseph's College Glee Club and of the Columbian Players provided two entertaining evenings of laughs and music, last Sunday and Monday, in the College Theatre. "De Darktown Minstrel" followed all the time-honored routines of the golden minstrels of years ago, combined with light college humor.

Hugh Rossi as Endman "Mississippi" delighted the audience with his antics and bottle. His interpretation of "Mammy" was superb. Bill Coyne as Endman "Brother Shadrach" did an excellent job of entertaining with his distracting dialogue with the In-erlocutor, Jack Cummings. Cummings stumbled through similar routines with the other four Endmen, Dave Coady, Bob Gregoire, Bob Nelson, and Jack Richert. Coady and Gregoire also teamed up to strut and sing their way through the "Darktown Strutters Ball" in a snappy song and dance number.

The Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Daniel Connor, took the spotlight temporarily with their renditions of "Wagon Wheels," "The Little Red Drum," and Jerome Kern's classic, "Old Man River." But the "Chordaliers," campus quartet, composed of Lou White, Tom Collins, Phil Powers, and Keith Forton, stole the show with "Dry Bones," "Deep River," and "Carolina." John Kaczmarczyk wooed everyone with his accordion playing of "Jealousy," and Joe Cavanagh was at his best with his "boogie."

Climaxing the show with another song and dance routine, Hugh Rossi and Frank Pavalko let go with "Rufus Rastus Johnson Brown."

Death Summons Former Coach

Mr. Thomas F. Radican, athletic coach at St. Joseph's from April, 1923 to June, 1925, died last month after an extended illness. Mr. Radican's interest in St. Joseph's continued through the years, and the college was remembered in his last will.

Many of the alumni who worked under Coach Radican will recall with pleasure their association with him on the diamond, gridiron and hardwood. A graduate of the University of Illinois school for coaches and during his undergraduate days at Northwestern, a letterman in the three major sports, Coach Radican came to St. Joseph's with an enviable reputation. His two years here were marked with success, particularly in basketball and baseball.

At the end of the 1925 baseball season, St. Joseph's discontinued intercollegiate sports and terminated its contract with Mr. Radican.

The charity of alumni prayers is requested for the repose of his soul!

ALUMNI QUICKIES

now." Alumni Days are coming up soon, Ed! . . . Charles L. Hughes, '11, formerly of Tipton, Ind., who last visited St. Joe's in 1914, has seen long years of service in the U.S. Army. As transport commander he made 18 voyages to the South Pacific. Retiring soon, he will take up residence at Walnut Creek, Calif., on a recently-acquired ranch, and will resume his practice of law. Charlie has a wife and three grown sons . . . Catholic weeklies are carrying a photo of the 50,000th D.P. brought to the U.S. by War Relief Services of the National Catholic Welfare Conference. This Polish family will settle in Fairfield, Mont., placed on a farm by the Rev. Russel Scheidler, '25, pastor of St. John's parish there, who has been responsible for the resettlement of 361 displaced persons . . . Fabian Brusok, '48, recently wrote to ask for the date of the Junior-Senior Prom; Fab plans to be at St. Joe's for the Formal on May 20 and hopes to meet many of his old classmates . . .

Bernard L. Fischer, ex-'26, is in the printing business at Auburn, Ind. . . . The April "Book of the Month Club News" carries a review of "The Perfect Invader," by Robert T. Burns, '49; the reviewer praises Bob's novel as "an unassuming, touching little story, and it has the ring of truth."
